Eligibility Criteria:

To be eligible, all applicants must:

- (a) Be under 35 years of age and have less than five years of practice;
- (b) Be fluent in both written and spoken English (given this is the conference language);
- (c) Have taken an active role in the legal profession in their countries;
- (d) Currently be involved in a cross-border practice or wish to become engaged in a cross-border practice; and
- (e) Have published an article in a reputable journal on some topic related to the work of one of the IPBA Committees or provide some other objective evidence of committed involvement in the profession.

Preference will be given to those applicants who could not otherwise attend the conference, for example, because of personal and family financial circumstances and/or because they are employed by a small firm which could not afford to send them to the conference.

Notes for Applicants:

Please complete the above application form in full.

You are also required to provide a letter of recommendation from a senior partner in your firm or a senior member of the legal profession in your country confirming that you meet the criteria set out above.

Please do not supply any further information.
