Eligibility Criteria for Young Lawyers:

To be eligible, an applicant must:

(a) be under 35 years of age and have less than seven years of legal practice;

(b) be fluent in both written and spoken English (given this is the conference language);

(c) have taken an active role in the legal profession in his/her country;

(d) currently be involved in a cross-border practice or wish to become engaged in a cross-border practice; and

(e) have published an article in a reputable journal on some topic related to the work of one of the IPBA Committees or provide some other objective evidence of committed involvement in the profession.

Preference will be given to those applicants who could not otherwise attend the conference due to personal and family financial circumstances and/or because they are employed by a small firm which could not afford to send them to the conference. Preference will also be given to applicants who have not previously attended an IPBA conference.

Eligibility Criteria for Lawyers in Developing Countries:

To be eligible, all applicants must:

(a) be an indigenous lawyer in Laos, Cambodia, Myanmar, Mongolia, Bangladesh, or the Pacific Islands;

(b) be fluent in both written and spoken English (the conference language); and

(c) currently be involved in a cross-border practice or wish to become engaged in a cross-border practice.
Notes for Applicants:

A successful applicant will receive round-trip economy plane fare between the country of residence or current location and the conference city, accommodations in the host city for the duration of the conference, a small per diem allowance, and full registration for the conference. Expenses associated with visa applications or travel required to obtain a visa are not covered by the scholarship.

Each scholar will be expected to fully participate in the entire conference through its entirety. In addition, each scholar will be expected to make a short presentation relating to their legal practice. All scholars will also be required to submit a written report about their experience at the conference.

Please complete the above application form in full.

You are also required to provide a letter of recommendation from a senior partner in your firm or a senior member of the legal profession in your country confirming that you meet the criteria set out above.

Please do not supply any further information.

Please send the completed application and letter of recommendation (by e-mail) by September 30, 2017 to:
