

Susmit Pushkar is a Partner at Khaitan & Co, a leading Indian law firm, in the Dispute Resolution practice group and is based out of the New Delhi office of Khaitan & Co. Susmit has diverse and rich experience in advising Clients across industries and laws. He regularly appears before the trial courts, the High Courts and the Supreme Court of India.

Susmit advises corporate houses in relation to investigations by government agencies (e.g. Serious Fraud Investigation Office, Central Bureau of Investigation, Enforcement Directorate, Economic Offence Wing) of bribery, money laundering, corporate fraud and various other offences; representing Clients through trial in criminal courts and appellate proceedings. He assists clients in their internal corporate investigations relating to corporate fraud, whistleblowing and harassment. He also advises clients in relation to competition litigation, including cartel and abuse of dominance.

Susmit regularly handles high stake arbitrations and complex litigation involving multiple stakeholders and regulatory bodies. Over the last 14 years, he has represented clients across several industries in their commercial, corporate, shareholders and other disputes before courts and arbitral tribunals, including international commercial arbitrations (e.g. ICC, SIAC, LCIA, GAFTA). He has led several constitutional challenges of legislations before the writ courts.

An LL.M. graduate of the Harvard Law School, Susmit is a registered Advocate-on-Record of the Supreme Court of India. Chambers & Partners notes Susmit as being "increasingly recognised in the market for "some stellar work" in the dispute resolution and white-collar crime spaces". He regularly speaks in seminars on legal issues impacting the industry.
