

Anne DUREZ has practiced as an independent lawyer during 15 years in French, US and UK firms (DS AVOCATS, SLAUGHTER & MAY, MAYER BROWN) mainly in international litigation, white collar criminal law and crisis management. She is former Secrétaire de la Conférence of the Paris Bar and as such won a prize rewarding young lawyers' oratorical skills.

In 2006 Anne joined the corporate legal department of the TOTAL energy group as Senior Legal Counsel. She is currently Group Compliance Officer in charge of anti-corruption, anti-fraud and ethics matters.

Outside of her responsibilities at Total she chairs the association "Women in law, Women of Exception" (Femmes de Loi, Femmes d'Exception) which aims at promoting ethics, gender balanced governance in both the private and public sectors as well as CSR issues.

She is the author of various publications on management issues for the legal profession, compliance and CSR issues as well as the promotion of women in company boards.

Anne joined the IPBA in 2010 where she had the privilege to hold different positions (Vice-chair of the Corporate Counsel Committee, Chair of the Membership Committee and Chair of the Next Generation Committee).

Anne is qualified as a lawyer and certified as a Company Board Member.
