

The Inter-Pacific Bar Association invites you to a special webinar:

Beyond furlough schemes – the impact of Covid-19 on employment and restructuring options in a globalized world

Tuesday, June 29, 2021, 8:00AM European ST • 2:00PM Singapore via Zoom

The Covid-19 pandemic has been around for more than a year now and its impact, as per the WHO, is likely to be more severe in 2021. Pandemic-linked issues faced by organizations globally are more complex and nuanced than what they were a year ago and the objective is to ensure business continuity, without compromising on employee well being.

The Employment and Immigration Law Committee of the Inter-Pacific Bar Association is hosting a webinar to discuss concerns currently being faced by organisations due to the pandemic. The webinar will bring together employment law experts from various jurisdictions to discuss issues that are pressing:
