

The Inter-Pacific Bar Association invites you to a special webinar:

International Protection of Intellectual Property Rights

9 June 2022

9:00 - 11:30 China • 10:00 - 12:30 Tokyo

via Zoom

Intellectual property protection has increasingly become a global topic and important issue and concern for a company's international investment and trade. How to fully protect its own IP rights against infringement and defend against bad-faith IP legal actions or abuse of IP rights has become a significant task faced by every country and region.

This webinar, hosted by the IPBA Intellectual Property Committee and co-hosted by the TBR and International Committee of Guangdong Lawyers Association, brings together panelists from the USA and China to share their experience and insights on IP protection.
