

Responding to Economic Turbulence in the Modern Workplace: Key Themes from Around the World

Thursday, July 14, 2022

10:00 AM EDT – 11:30 AM EDT / 3:00 PM GMT – 4:30 PM GMT

Please join us for this free webinar featuring international labor and employment bar leaders reporting on how employers, employees and unions in their countries are responding to economic turbulence amidst generational upheaval and innovations in worker activism and workforce retention.

This continues our series of discussions and initiatives to build community and engagement among employment law associations around the world. We trust that this roundtable will be both thought-provoking and beneficial for your practice.

Following the panel, there will be a meet & greet breakout session with small groups that will include a mix of members from each of the groups.

We hope you will join us!

Register in advance for the roundtable, which is being presented at no cost:
