Marina is a seasoned dispute resolution lawyer with extensive experience handling cross-border matters in the Singapore International Commercial Court (SICC) and arbitration proceedings, as well as domestic matters in the Singapore Courts. Awards, accolades and rankings secured over the years, as well as her appointment as Senior Counsel, reflect her standing in the legal profession.

Marina's recent experience includes acting for entities incorporated in different jurisdictions; the trial was heard in the SICC, and the appeal was heard in the Court of Appeal of Singapore before a panel of SICC judges. She is also counsel in various arbitration and court proceedings arising from disputes between joint venture partners in their regional investments.

Outside of legal practice, Marina is a Board Member and Audit Committee Member of the Singapore Land Authority. Marina is also a Member of the Appeal Advisory Panel of the Monetary Authority of Singapore.
