

The Inter-Pacific Bar Association Welcomes You

Established in Tokyo in 1991, the IPBA is the leading international association of business and commercial lawyers practicing in, or strongly interested in, the Asia-Pacific region.

More than 1300 members in over 60 jurisdictions already know!

IPBA conferences, live and online seminars, social gatherings, and printed publications help members keep up on the latest legal trends while making lasting friendships with like-minded professionals from around the world.

IPBA Annual Conference

The IPBA has a 33-year history of successful conferences in the Asia-Pacific Region, featuring 50+ concurrent sessions organized and conducted by the IPBA Committees.

Regional & Online Events

Regularly held in-person regional conferences and social gatherings take place around the world. Online webinars and meetings are also offered ensuring that members stay in touch.

IPBA Committees

IPBA members can join and actively participate in up to three of the 24 specialist committees covering a wide range of legal practice areas relevant to commercial lawyers.

IPBA Journal

The quarterly IPBA Journal is written exclusively by members and features current legal topics, peculiar laws from around the world, regional festivals, local culture, and IPBA events.

Membership Categories

Choose from four membership categories:
Standard (annual) US $285
3-Year Membership US $780
Corporate Counsel US $145
Young Lawyers (under 35) US $75

Online Membership Directory

The online membership directory enables you to connect with other IPBA members quickly and easily with up-to-date information at your fingertips 24/7.

Scholarship Program

Since 1994, the IPBA has awarded Scholarships to close to 200 lawyers, providing an annual conference fee waiver, travel and accommodation, and a 3-Year membership.

Individual Memberships

The IPBA offers membership to individuals only, resulting in all members having an equal opportunity to participate, and keeping the association a smaller and more personable size.

Media & Service Partners

Members can benefit from the IPBA's relationships with various media partners to receive or contribute to the most current legal information on easily accessible online platforms.
