

The Inter-Pacific Bar Association invites you to an exciting new webinar series:

The IPBA Sustainability Café

First Session: Monday, 17 August 2026

6.30 pm (IST) / 8 am (Peru) / 3 pm (Paris) / 10 pm (Japan)

The Sustainability Café is intended to be an informal and interactive conversation for committee members and other interested IPBA members to exchange practical perspectives on climate, ESG and sustainability-related developments. Less formal than regular webinars, The Sustainability Café is structured as an executive discussion that lasts no more than 45 minutes. The theme for our first session is:

Building a Climate & ESG Legal Practice: Client Needs, Capabilities and Market Opportunities

The discussion will cover a range of topics, such as how law firms and practitioners can identify evolving client requirements, develop relevant expertise, build internal and external visibility, and translate climate and ESG developments into meaningful legal advisory opportunities. The IPBA Sustainability Café will be held on Zoom, and the first session will be led by the following experts:

Pavi Jain

Khaitan & Co, Mumbai

Fernando Hurtado de Mendoza

Kennedys Law, Lima
